1. Code of Conduct
1.1	All Councillors will observe the Code of Conduct at all times when on Council business and no member will act in such a way that will bring the Council into disrepute, behave offensively in meetings or obstruct the Council's business.
1.2	Unless he/she has been granted a dispensation, a Councillor or non-councillor with voting rights shall withdraw from a meeting when it is considering a matter in which he/she has a disclosable pecuniary interest or another interest if so required by the council's code of conduct. He/she may return to the meeting after it has considered the matter in which he/she had the interest.
1.3	Dispensation requests shall be in writing and submitted to the clerk as soon as possible before the meeting, or failing that, at the start of the meeting for which the dispensation is required.

2. Annual Meetings
2.1	In an election year, the annual meeting of the Council shall be held on or within 14 days following the day on which the new councillors elected take office. In a year which is not an election year, the annual meeting of a Council shall be held on such day in May as the Council may direct. If no other time is fixed, the annual meeting of the Council shall take place at 6pm.
2.2	The first business of the Annual Meeting will be the election of the Chair (and Vice Chair, if any) and to receive their acceptance of office. Once accepted from this date both Chair and Vice Chair would agree to a maximum term of 3 years in each office. Each position requires a nominator and a seconder then a vote shall be carried by a show of hands by all those eligible to vote. Once any member has held the office of Chair for 3 years in total they shall then forfeit any right to seek re-election to either post for a term of at least 3 years.
2.3	The Chair of the Council, unless they have resigned or becomes disqualified, shall continue in office and preside at the annual meeting until a successor is elected at the next annual meeting of the Council.
2.4	The Vice-Chair of the Council, if any, unless they have resigned or becomes disqualified, shall hold office until immediately after the election of the Chair of the Council at the next annual meeting of the Council.
2.5	In an election year, if the current Chair of the Council has not been re-elected as a member of the Council, they shall preside at the meeting until a successor Chair of the Council has been elected. The current Chair of the Council shall not have an original vote in respect of the election of the new Chair of the Council but must give a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.
2.6	In an election year, if the current Chair of the Council has been re-elected as a member of the Council, they shall preside at the meeting until a new Chair of the Council has been elected. They may exercise an original vote in respect of the election of the new Chair of the Council and must give a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes. Term of office.
2.7	Following the election of the Chair and Vice Chair of the Council at the annual meeting of the council, the business of the annual meeting shall include:
	i. In an election year, delivery by the Chair of the Council and councillors of their acceptance of office forms unless the council resolves for this to be done at a later date. In a year which is not an election year, delivery by the Chair of the Council of their acceptance of office forms unless the council resolves for this to be done at a later date.
	ii. Review of delegation arrangements to committees, sub-committees, staff and other local authorities.
	iii. Review of terms of reference for committees; appointment of members to existing committees; appointment of any new committees in accordance with standing order 9.
	iv. Review and adoption of appropriate standing orders and financial regulations.
	v. Review of inventory of land, and assets including buildings and equipment.

	vi.	Confirmation of arrangements for insurance cover in respect of all insured risks.
	vii.	Review of the council's and/or staff subscriptions to other bodies.
	viii.	Review of the council's complaints procedure.
	ix.	Review of the council's procedures for handling requests made under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the data Protection Act 1998.
	x.	Confirmation of the time and place of ordinary meetings of the full council up to and including the next annual meeting of full council.
