021/26	Summer Event
	i	To receive an update on the St Mary's Fun Run
		No further update had been received.
	ii	To receive an update on music/dance events
		Lofthouse Brass Band has confirmed attendance with expected numbers to be 15. Musicians will bring their own chairs which can be used by the Brass Brigade afterwards. Parking will be reserved for the musicians in the overflow car park. The Clerk confirmed the car park has been strimmed of any weeds. The PC agreed to mount its gazebo near to the stage to provide emergency shelter in inclement weather.
		Living Potential has confirmed their stall and will hold a drumming workshop from midday to 1pm. Cllr Taylor said he had received no further information from the Brass Brigade and that he would chase this up.
		Cllr Watts reported that The Just for Fun Theatre Group has obtained its BOPA exemption from LCC.
		Resolved: That the updates be welcomed.
	iii	To receive an update on bookings and invoice payments for food vendors
		The Clerk confirmed that she had received payment from Total Sports, but that documents and pitch invoice payments are still being awaited by the food vendors.
		Resolved: That the update be noted.
	iv	To finalise the volunteer rota and event plan

		The rota was circulated prior to the meeting with the agreement that Rotary volunteer names would be added once confirmed. It was proposed and approved that there be a 'Duty Manager' allocated to each slot to take overall responsibility for the event and volunteers on site for that period and that this should always be a Parish Councillor. The responsibilities were allocated and agreed. The final event plan and event risk assessment was circulated. It was agreed that Parish Councillor phone numbers would be shared with other Councillors to enable any emergency communications on the day.
		Resolved: That the rota, event plan and risk assessment be approved.
